

Dear Researchers and Scholars

We are pleased to announce that Research Management Cell (RMC) Tikapur Multiple Campus, Far Western University, is hosting a National Conference on Indigenous Knowledge and Resources to Strengthen Diversity in Future Education System on 16-17 June 2023 at Tikapur, Kailali. The conference aims to bring together expert researchers from diverse fields to share their latest research ideas and insights on the themes to strengthen diversity and inclusion in the education system. We invite abstracts of original research papers, case studies, and review articles from all interested participants before May 10, 2023. The conference themes include but are not limited to:

- Indigenous knowledge in TESOL
- Pedagogy for Diversity, inclusion, and Equity
- Multilingualism and Language in education policy
- Technology to promote learners' engagement
- Tools and methods to promote critical thinking in the classroom
- Resources to enhance learner autonomy
- Literature and Education
- MOOCs and open courses as supplementary resources
- ELT in difficult circumstances

Submission will undergo a rigorous review process by a panel of experts, and selected abstracts will be invited for presentation.

We look forward to receiving your submissions and welcoming you to the conference. For further details, please visit our website at tikapur.fwu.edu.np or write us at tikapurconference@gmail.com or contact us at 977-9848403720
